

Food safety Culture Survey

Sl.No	Question	Strongly Agree (4)	Agree (3)	Disagree (2)	Strongly disagree (1)
1	New employees receive food safety training before they are allowed to work
2	I appreciate when a co-worker points out to me if I am doing something that could affect food safety in a bad way.
3	I think my supervisor always puts food safety ahead of production.
4	I am comfortable stopping the line whenever I see something that might harm quality and food safety of the food we make.
5	I understand how food get contaminated with micro-organisms or allergens that can make people sick.
6	Our decisions, actions and behaviour do not change when we are audited or when senior management is in the building.
7	I understand how this plant measures food safety performance and how we are doing.

8	Food safety rules, procedures, work instructions reviewed with us regularly.
9	If I make a suggestion that will improve food safety, I know it will be taken seriously.
10	Everyone in my shift always follows food safety rules and procedures.
11	When a food safety incident occurs, we aggressively address its root cause to make sure it doesn't happen again.
12	I think employee safety and food safety are very high priority for leadership at this plant
13	Employees get recognised for their contribution to making sure that we produce a safe food
14	Considering the nature of operations in your company do you feel that food safety is important to you
Total Score

Please circle one.

Date of survey: _____

I am a Permanent/ Temporary category employee.