

Indgap or Globalgap

IMPORTANT POINTS TO BE NOTED

- People are key to the safe and efficient operations of any farm.
 - Farm staff and contractors as well as producers themselves stand for the quality of the produce and for environmental protection.
 - Education and training will help progress towards sustainability and build on social capital.
 - The requirements are intended to ensure safe practice in the work place and all workers understand and are competent to perform their duties and are provided with proper equipment to allow them to work safely and that in the event of accidents, proper and timely assistance can be obtained.
 - Producer Group to identify a member of its management responsible for workers, health, safety and welfare
 - Group must put in place the following documents
1. Risk Assessment for hazards to workers health and safety
 2. Procedure on health and safety addressing the identified risks
 3. Policy on workers' health and safety
 4. Training to workers on health and safety
 5. Workers welfare