

Maturity standards of Carrots

Crop	Maturity indices
Carrots	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Harvested when the roots have attained sufficient size to fill in the tip and develop a uniform taper.• Should be crisp and should not become woody.• Roots should be at least 12 cm long and 1.25 to 3.75 cm in diameter at the upper end depending on the variety.